

LASSCO

www.lassco.co.uk

THREE PIGEONS

LASSCO Three Pigeons

Milton Common,

Oxfordshire OX9 2JN

+44 (0)1844 277188

3pigeons@lassco.co.uk

BRUNSWICK HOUSE

30 Wandsworth Road,

London SW8 2LG

+44 (0) 20 7394 2100

brunswick@lassco.co.uk

17TH CENTURY ARCHITECTURAL FOUNTAINS

A number of rare, 17th century, copper-engraved prints of fountains

Georg Andreas Böckler (act. 1644-1698)

Fountains from Architectura Curiosa Nova Pars Tertia

by Georg Andreas Böckler, published in Nuremberg: 1664

Framed

DIMENSIONS: 34.29cm (13^{1/2}") High, 25.4cm (10") Wide

STOCK CODE: P00236

HISTORY

Georg Andreas Böckler was a German architect, engineer and author. He was the architect of the city of Nuremberg and specialized in hydraulic architecture. Architectura Curiosa Nova was his main opus, published in 1664. It featured elaborate Baroque designed fountains for public squares and private country house gardens.