

LASSCO

www.lassco.co.uk

THREE PIGEONS

LASSCO Three Pigeons

Milton Common,

Oxfordshire OX9 2JN

+44 (0)1844 277188

3pigeons@lassco.co.uk

BRUNSWICK HOUSE

30 Wandsworth Road,

London SW8 2LG

+44 (0) 20 7394 2100

brunswick@lassco.co.uk

A FRAMED MIAO CEREMONIAL NECKLACE

probably "bai tong" (white copper) or silver-wire, Qing dynasty or later, the finely wrapped silver-wire, tapering behind the neck where it is hooked and expanding across the collar into interwoven loops, presented in a 20th Century veneered glazed display frame,

DIMENSIONS: 55cm (21^{3/4}"") High, 55cm (21^{3/4}"") Wide, 5cm (2") Deep

PRICE: £465

STOCK CODE: 46834

HISTORY

These ceremonial necklaces are highly treasured and worn as part of exuberant costume for feast days, special occasions and especially weddings where historically the silver jewellery formed part of a dowry. Renowned for their love of silver-work - centred in Guizhou, in South Western China, the Miao without the borders of China are often known as Hmong.