A LARGE CAST-IRON 'DUTCH' STYLE FIREBACK,

nineteenth century, to a late seventeenth century northern European pattern, the arms of William, Prince of Orange, and Mary, Queen of England, raised aloft by cherubs; the central field flanked by ornate pilasters, the plate surmounted by scallops and dolphins,

DIMENSIONS: 106cm (41^{3/4}") High, 80.5cm (31^{3/4}") Wide

STOCK CODE: 45698

HISTORY

although believed to be a later re-cast, this is a very rare example of this pattern- the original probably cast in Germany for the Dutch market in the 1690s; the arms are of William and Mary as Prince and Princess of Orange, rather than King and Queen of England,
