HISTORY

The 35m run (approximately 116feet) is supplemented by a further 15 or so panels of worse condition that can either be restored or used for parts. Each panel has some of the lower lugs lacking. The square section posts have supporting scroll brackets, some of which may be available together with larger posts and spike finials. The main run of railing has the pairs of urn finials on square posts repeating on 241cm (95") centres. The first fourteen sections of railing in detail are as follows: A. 241cm (95"
