A NEW PLAN OF THE CITIES OF WESTMINSTER

London map published January 20th 1814

Thomas Tegg (1776–1845) was a British bookseller and publisher based at 111 Cheapside, London. He printed a series of pamphlets, consisting of abridgements of popular works. They proved successful, and he had up to two hundred titles, many of which sold four thousand copies. By 1840 he had published four thousand works on his own account and in 1825 he started the London Encyclopedia which ran to twenty-two volumes.
