

LASSCO

www.lassco.co.uk

THREE PIGEONS

LASSCO Three Pigeons
Milton Common,
Oxfordshire OX9 2JN
+44 (0)1844 277188
3pigeons@lassco.co.uk

BRUNSWICK HOUSE

30 Wandsworth Road,
London SW8 2LG
+44 (0) 20 7394 2100
brunswick@lassco.co.uk

A PAIR OF ENGLISH CARVED OAK OVERDOORS, late 19th or early 20th Century, thought removed from The Bodleian Library, Oxford, each with an arched pedimented top section, its recess lined with egg and dart mouldings, above a frieze carved as ribbon-tied fruiting swags, centred with an extended "keystone" bearing the monogram "A",

DIMENSIONS: 89cm (35") High, 183cm (72") Wide, 28cm (11") Deep

PRICE: £8,800 the pair

STOCK CODE: 45674

HISTORY

Research continues on the exact provenance of these fantastic overdoors. The Bodleian is possible – another contender is the Indian Institute directly opposite. They were removed from their original Central Oxford location some years ago and were held in reserve by an Oxford Museum for potential re-use. LASSCO has acquired them from that Museum as they are now deemed surplus to their collections.

The quality of the carving is first-rate: seed-pods splitting and beautifully furled ribbons.