A PAIR OF ENGLISH CAST IRON AND TOLE PEINT POST-MOUNTED PIER-TOP LANTERNS

19th Century, fully refurbished, removed from Cornbury Park, Oxfordshire each rectangular lantern with a convex sheet steel top and pointed finial, raised on a wrought-iron scrolled chair-iron and baluster-shaped post, with a square foot,

DIMENSIONS: 163cm (64^{3/4}"") High, 40cm (15^{3/4}"") Wide, (40cm wide the square footplate)

HISTORY

The lanterns are glazed with a shatter-proof perspex, the spectacular light-bulbs are included.

The lanterns were removed during changes to the terrace balustrade at Cornbury, were fully renovated but never re-installed.
