A PAIR OF LATE VICTORIAN WROUGHT AND CAST IRON DRIVEWAY GATES, removed from an estate near Henley on Thames, each leaf richly ornamented with scrollwork, S-scroll crestings with bifurcated finials, knopped bars to the principle panels, their flanking panels modelled as stylised vases issuing plants with bronze flowerhead bosses,

DIMENSIONS: 201cm (79^{3/4}") High, 244cm (96") At Highest, 305cm (120") Wide

STOCK CODE: 45161

HISTORY

These substantial gates have at some point been “stretched’ - i.e they have had additional panels of scrollwork, vertical panels, added to each of the closing edges in order to make the gates wider.
