A RARE ENGLISH CONFECTIONER'S STAINED-GLASS WINDOW FRIEZE

from a George V Chocolate Shop window comprising a rectangular central overdoor panel flanked by a pair of rectangular window headers, in leaded stained glass (unframed), each centred with a gift-box of chocolates within an oval: the central in pink and ribbon-tied, the wider panels with the lid flapped back revealing wrapped chocolates; each indistinctly labelled "Chocolates",

DIMENSIONS: 30cm (11<sup>3/4</sup>" ) High, 253cm (99<sup>1/2</sup>" ) Wide, the three sections: 98+57+98cm wide

PRICE: £995 the three panels

STOCK CODE: 46704

HISTORY

The "Chocolate" script on each box is worn – to the point of being indistinguishable – not unusual for shop signage when lettering is often applied after the leading and not fired. It could be re-painted (please enquire).
