A VERY LARGE GEORGE III CAST IRON FIREBACK

dated 1780 - probably made in the Weald of Kent / East Sussex

the rectangular plate with a moulded border and bearing the name "NICHOLAS DANON" and the date "1780" in an ornate script, flanked by a pair of balusters,

DIMENSIONS: 87cm (34¹/₄") High, 98cm (38¹/₂") Wide, 2cm (0³/₄") Thick

PRICE: £2,235

STOCK CODE: 47576

HISTORY

This fireback is large and heavy: it weighs 120kg. The evident, and not necessarily precise, use of stamps pressed into the sand-mould during the sandcasting process prior to pouring is typical.
