A VICTORIAN REPOUSSE COPPER FARMER'S FIREMARK

the shaped plaque pressed with a relief image of a Wheatsheaf , a scroll bearing the "Fire & Life" strapline above the "Farmer's" brand,

DIMENSIONS: 26cm (10^{3/4}") High, 20cm (7^{3/4}") Wide, 1cm (0^{1/2}") Deep

STOCK CODE: 47091-1

HISTORY

Fire marks were presented to companies and individuals who invested in Fire Insurance products for display on the front of their premises. The mark re-assured early privately run Fire Brigades that their work was being paid for – that the occupant had fire insurance cover.

This one is somewhat battered with a loss to the bottom right corner.
