

ALPINE FLOWERS

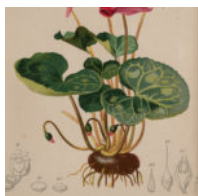

Original 19th century chromolithographs

Anton Hartinger was an Austrian artist who specialized in still life paintings of fruit and flowers. He was born in Vienna in 1806 and a member of the Academy of Fine Arts Vienna from 1843 to 1851. He later became a pioneer in the field of chromolithographic printing. He died in Vienna in 1890.

DIMENSIONS: 30cm (11^{3/4}") High, 24cm (9^{1/2}") Wide, 2cm (0^{3/4}") Deep

PRICE: £110 each

STOCK CODE: P01192 pl.413

HISTORY

Published for "Atlas der Alpenflora" by Anton Hartinger in Vienna 1884