MARRIAGE-A-LA MODE, AFTER WILLIAM HOGARTH. A SET OF SIX COPPER-ENGRAVED PRINTS

1803 edition engraved by Thomas Cook from William Hogarth's original designs.

Marriage-a-la Mode is the story of a marriage arranged by two self-seeking fathers – a spendthrift nobleman who needs cash and a wealthy City of London merchant who wants to buy into the aristocracy. It was Hogarth's first moralising series of what he called 'modern moral subjects'.
