

LASSCO

www.lassco.co.uk

THREE PIGEONS

LASSCO Three Pigeons
Milton Common,
Oxfordshire OX9 2JN
+44 (0)1844 277188
3pigeons@lassco.co.uk

BRUNSWICK HOUSE

30 Wandsworth Road,
London SW8 2LG
+44 (0) 20 7394 2100
brunswick@lassco.co.uk

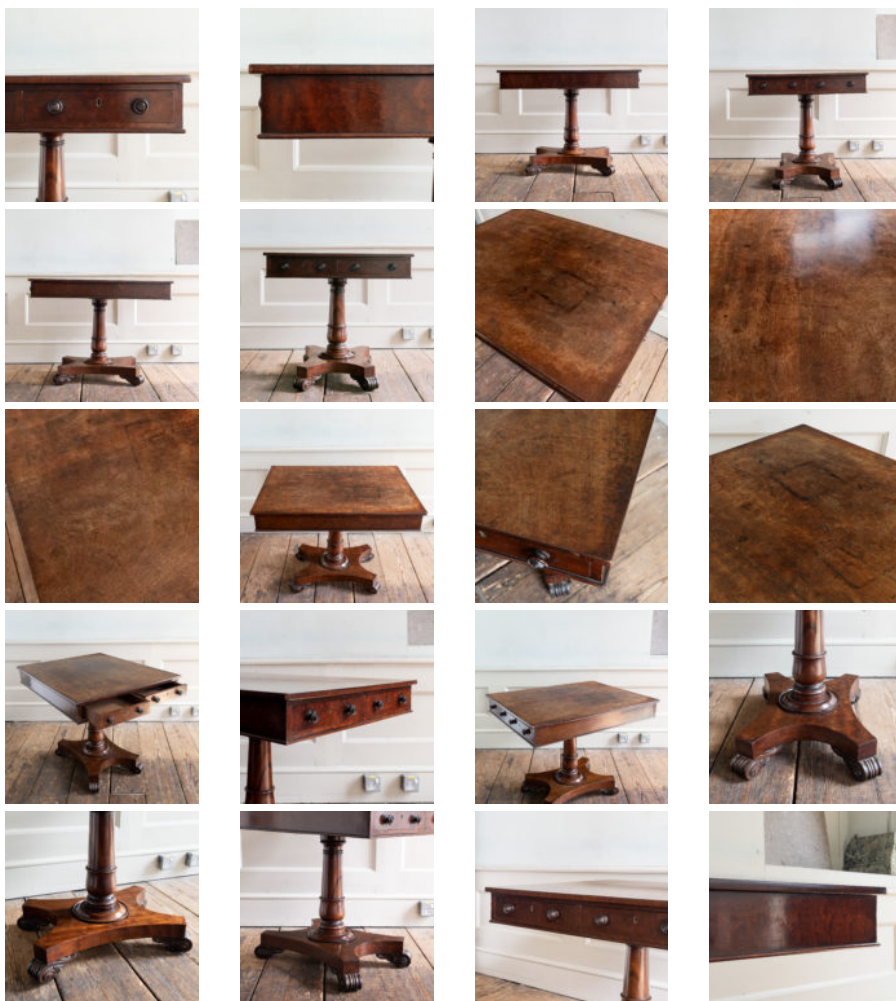

NINETEENTH CENTURY SABICU LIBRARY TABLE

c.1825, in the manner of William Trotter (1772-1833), of unusual configuration and size, with opposing drawers to the short sides of the rectangular top, the tapered and turned column with decorative band moulding supported by quatreform base, the scroll feet with castors.

DIMENSIONS: 71cm (28") High, 91.5cm (36") Wide, 70cm (27½") Deep

PRICE: £2,200

STOCK CODE: 79413

HISTORY

Sabicu – or ‘Horse-flesh Mahogany’ as it was known – was a hardwood imported from Cuba and The Bahamas in the nineteenth century celebrated for its durability, hardness and ability to resist invasion from wood-beetle.